GUESTS

Will Hunt, Director of Potter County GIS/Planning/Community Development, provided an update on the Potter County Market Village. He reported that following the close of the bid process and consultation with the Solicitor, a bid waiver and project extension were submitted. A surveying contract will determine the project's limits of disturbance and exact boundaries prior to construction. No materials have been ordered at this time; however, it is anticipated that materials will be ordered in 2025, with project work beginning in 2026. Director Hunt also shared updates on the Revitalize Potter County initiative, noting that Community Engagement meetings are being held, with dates available on Facebook. He expressed appreciation for the strong involvement of the Planning Commission and local schools in the process.
